AMNESTY
An individual who reports sexual and gender-based harassment or misconduct, either as a Complainant or a third party witness, will not be subject to disciplinary action by the University for his/her own personal consumption of alcohol or drugs at or near the time of the incident, provided that any such violations did not and do not place the health of safety of any other person at risk.

The University prohibits sexual and gender-based harassment and misconduct in all its forms, including:

- sexual harassment
- sexual assault
- sexual exploitation
- stalking
- retaliation
- sexual offenses against minors
- intimate partner violence/relationship violence

To make a report of sexual or gender-based harassment or misconduct to the University:

Any student, employee, applicant for employment or admission to the University, or campus guests who believes that he or she has been discriminated against on the basis of sex or gender, in violation of Title IX, may file a complaint with the Title IX Coordinator. Drexel’s Title IX Coordinator is:

Michele Rovinsky-Mayer
Associate Vice President
Office of Equality and Diversity
Drexel University Title IX Coordinator
Tel: 215.895.1403
Email: titleix@drexel.edu

University policy prohibits retaliation against anyone who files or participates in the investigation of a complaint.
