What do we do?

We are ambassadors and champions of the
Online Learning Council
serving the Drexel community

What do we do?

- Build collaborative relationships across the University
- Showcase “best practices”
- Highlight exemplary course design features and approaches
- Open doors for new perspectives/ approaches/insights into teaching and learning in the online arena

- Use objective instruments to examine online course design across all academic units.
- Provide consultation and suggestions for improvement
