APPENDIX C: AI Tools: Sample Syllabi Language

AUTHOR: Provost's Office Working Group (WG) on Policy for Academic Integrity with Artificial Intelligence (POP-AIAI)

DATE: August 9, 2023

The Policy for Academic Integrity with Artificial Intelligence (POP-AIAI) states that faculty are expected to explicitly discuss the permitted use of Artificial Intelligence tools in their class. The purpose of this document is to give faculty sample syllabi language that they may adopt / adapt to their needs.

It is anticipated that this Appendix will require regular updates to reflect the rapidly changing landscape.

The guidance below is drawn in part from the advice contained in [Gannon, 2023] and [Eaton, 2023].

EXAMPLE #1 (use of AI tools is forbidden):

PERMITTED USE OF ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE TOOLS IN THIS COURSE: Artificial intelligence tools such as large language models (e.g., ChatGPT) are not permitted to be used in preparing submitted work for this course. Further information on university policies regarding the use of artificial intelligence tools in the classroom is available in the Draft Drexel University Policy on Academic Integrity Pertaining to Artificial Intelligence.

EXAMPLE #2 (use of AI tools is allowed in some cases):

PERMITTED USE OF ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE TOOLS IN THIS COURSE: Artificial intelligence tools such as large language models (e.g., ChatGPT) are permitted to be used in preparing submitted work for some parts of this course. In particular, please see the instructions for Assignments 1 and 2, for which the usage of such tools is encouraged. Such tools are not permitted to be used in preparing submissions for Assignments 3 and 4. Further information on university policies regarding the use of artificial intelligence tools in the classroom is available in the Draft Drexel University Policy on Academic Integrity Pertaining to Artificial Intelligence.

EXAMPLE #3 (use of AI tools is encouraged):

PERMITTED USE OF ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE TOOLS IN THIS COURSE: Artificial intelligence tools such as large language models (e.g., ChatGPT) are encouraged to be used in preparing submitted work for the assignments in this course. In particular, please see the instructions for usage included with each assignment. Further information on university policies regarding the use of artificial intelligence tools in the classroom is available in the Draft Drexel University Policy on Academic Integrity Pertaining to Artificial Intelligence.
