5:30 p.m. University City 5K

PARTICIPATE

The 27th Annual University City 5K Run will be held on Saturday, November 10, 2018 at 5:30 p.m. Packet pickup begins at 4 p.m. Online registration is available now at http://drexel.edu/ucity5k and closes on November 8 at 12 p.m. Day-of registration will be available starting at 4 p.m.

The University City 5K Run, formerly known as the Pipino Run, was founded by the Nicholas P. Pipino Memorial Foundation. The Foundation was created by family, friends, and volunteers seeking to stop senseless acts of violence and to preserve their fond memories of Nick Pipino.

For the past 26 years, proceeds from the University City 5K Run have directly supported the Nicholas P. Pipino Memorial Scholarship at Drexel University. Each year, experienced runners and amateur weekend athletes take to the streets for the University City 5K Run, benefiting the Nicholas P. Pipino Memorial Scholarship for Drexel University students.

The run is currently managed by Drexel University and Drexel alumni; students and community members are encouraged to line the race route and help cheer on the runners.

6 p.m.: Post Race Gathering

Landmark Americana

Join your fellow runners and Family Weekend attendees at Landmark Americana. Food and beverage specials will be available. Weather permitting, enjoy the wonderful patio and firepits.

The event includes Continental Breakfast and features military tradition, patriotic music and remarks from members of our University’s military community. Members of the Drexel Veterans Association will be present and displaying photographic story boards about their service and transition to life at Drexel! The buffet opens at 10am and the formal program starts at 10:30am and runs to 11:30am.

To register for this event, please go to the following link: Campus Veterans Day Breakfast and Observation RSVP Form

Also, feel free bring donations to the Hub of Hope, a partnership between the City of Philadelphia, SEPTA, and Project HOME. The new Hub of Hope offers a safe place where people can enjoy a warm cup of coffee, take a shower and wash laundry, and speak to peers or case managers to begin the process of finding a permanent home. It creates even greater opportunities to connect individuals experiencing homelessness to treatment, medical care and ultimately stable, supportive housing. Did you know that in 2017, 40,056 veterans were experiencing homelessness in the US (9% of all homeless adults)? Project HOME provides a variety of services that cater specifically to veterans and veteran families currently without homes or in danger of losing their homes. For more information, visit here. Donations may include: travel sized toiletries including shampoo, conditioner, body wash, soap, toothpaste, toothbrush, shaving cream, razors, new Men’s and Women’s underwear, laundry detergent pods, new towels and washcloths, new/gently used warm weather clothing, such as sweatpants, sweatshirts, coats, hats, scarves, gloves (men’s and women’s), or anything from the Hub of Hope’s Amazon Wishlist.

Veterans Day Breakfast and Observation

10 a.m.–12:30 p.m.: Annual Hillel Family Weekend Bagel Brunch
