APPLY TO BECOME A DREXEL COMMUNITY SCHOLAR

The Lindy Center for Civic Engagement fosters a culture of civic responsibility by providing structure and resources that empower members of the Drexel University community to expand their civic identities and take action to address community needs.

ABOUT THE DREXEL COMMUNITY SCHOLARS PROGRAM

Drexel Community Scholars (DCS) is a student leadership program within the Lindy Center for Civic Engagement. DCS provide 5-15 hours per week of either direct service or capacity building to a non-profit organization. Positions range in scope but may include duties such as tutoring elementary school youth, serving meals to homeless individuals or providing administrative support. In addition to their work at their placement sites, DCS engage in leadership development and team-building activities.

Positions are available through the Federal Work Study Program, student employment through the Lindy Center for Civic Engagement or on a volunteer basis.

To apply, please visit www.drexel.edu/lindycenter/students.

For more information, please contact lindycenter@drexel.edu / 215.895.6130 or visit www.drexel.edu/lindycenter

PLACEMENT AREAS

- Animals
- Arts & Culture
- Community Development
- Disaster & Emergency Services
- Education
- Environment & Conservation
- Health
- Homelessness & Hunger
- Human & Civil Rights
- Media & Communication
- Seniors
- Sports & Recreation
- Technology
- Tutoring & Mentoring
- Youth