The Center for Learning and Academic Success Services (CLASS) empowers students to develop skills and strategies that foster academic success and personal growth through purposeful interactions with peer and professional staff.

Services

Academic Coaching
Students learn strategies to become more effective, self-regulated learners. Topics addressed in coaching sessions vary based on individual student needs, but include time management, study skills, and active learning techniques. Academic coaching is available to all enrolled students at Drexel University.

- To schedule appointments with a Peer Academic Coach (PAC) visit DrexelOne and select the link for Accudemia (under the “Academics” tab).
- To schedule appointments with a Professional Academic Coach, email academicsuccess@drexel.edu.

Peer Tutoring
Students focus on developing skills required to master course content and become stronger independent learners. Tutoring is provided for courses in the College of Nursing and Health Professions, Graduate School of Biomedical Sciences and Professional Studies, and the Dornsife School of Public Health. Schedule appointments through Accudemia in DrexelOne (under the “Academics” tab).

Workshops
CLASS offers in-class and co-curricular workshops on a variety of subjects. The workshop schedule is available on the CLASS website.

GSTD100 – Strategies for Academic Success
This course explores the learning process and assists undergraduate students in achieving academic success through improved self-management, self-direction, and resource utilization. Students must have completed at least one term at Drexel and must see their academic advisor to enroll.

Resources

- Study space – group and individual
- Computer lab – with printing and scanning
- Lending library - textbooks and test prep materials
- Anatomical models
