Women 100 Event Updates

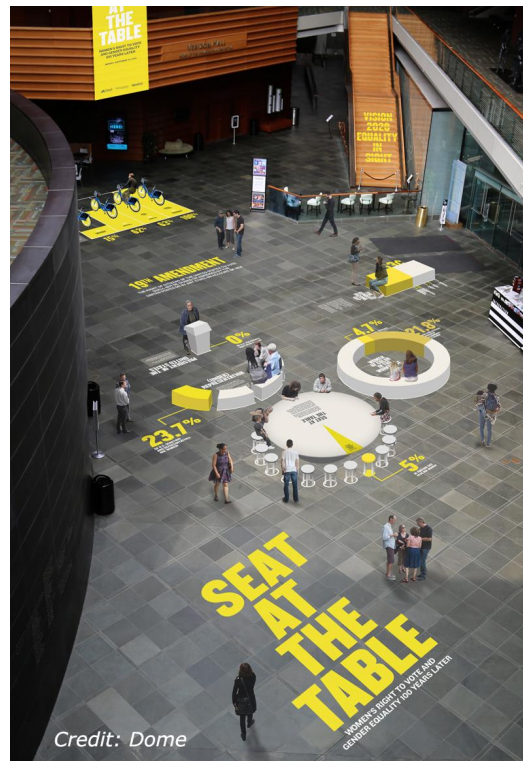

March 1 is Opening Day for Seat at the Table Exhibition

March 1 through September 30
The interactive exhibition Seat at the Table will open March 1 at the Kimmel Center for the Performing Arts, 300 S. Broad Street in Philadelphia. This exhibition kicks off the Women 100 event series, led by Drexel University's Vision 2020. It is presented in partnership with the Kimmel Center Cultural Campus.

The installation commemorates the centennial of the 19th amendment — women's right to vote — and presents a snapshot of gender equality, asking 100 years later, "Where are we now?"

Gender equality is part of the unfinished business of American democracy. Women are half the population, yet their ideas and concerns are often unheard.

The exhibition is family-friendly, free and open to the public.

Equip the Next Generation to Lead Positive Social Change

March 20-22, 2020

Registration is open for Spring Breakthru, a program designed to equip the next generation of leaders with the training, tools and resources to advocate for positive social change. Colleges and nonprofits can sponsor undergraduates to attend. *If you know someone in university administration who should know about this unique opportunity, please forward this information to them! Any individual or organization can contribute to a fund that pays for students with financial need to attend. This transformative weekend of talks and discussions is open to all gender identities and expressions. Our keynote speaker is Vox Media's Liz Plank. Participating organizations include Rock the Vote, Vote Run Lead, ACLU and UNLADYLIKE2020. The early bird rate of $350 per student is available through March 1. Click to register or email questions to Joyce Lewandowski at jml575@drexel.edu.

Coming Soon: Voter Mobilization 2020

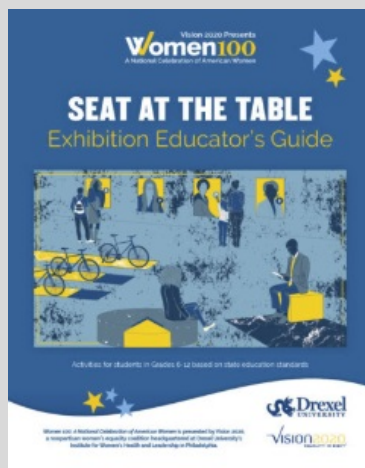

Through November 3, 2020

To honor the legacy of the suffragists who fought for and won women's right to vote, Vision 2020 is launching a campaign across the U.S. to drive a record number of women to vote in 2020. We will be inviting everyone to join a team from Vision 2020's national network and take part in our peer-to-peer online competition. Participants can invite their friends and earn points – redeemable for prizes – by preparing themselves and their communities to engage in our democratic process. Stay tuned!

Reserve Your Seat for April 1 Women's Leadership Forums

April 1, 2020

Registration is open! Participate in one, two or three dynamic dialogues about gender equality. You'll engage in meaningful conversations with well-known panelists, including Elaine Weiss, award-winning journalist and author of The Woman's Hour and Erin Vilardi, founder and executive director of VoteRunLead. Take part in discussions about the past, present and future of shared leadership among women and men. For the day's agenda and to register go to Women's Leadership Forums.

Teachers! Get the Educator's Guide for Class Trips to Seat at the Table

To help students in grades 6-12 get the most value from their visit to the Women 100 Seat at the Table exhibition, a free Educator's Guide is now available for download from the Women 100 website. Leaders of Girl Scout troops and other youth groups, as well as parents who home school, are also welcome to download the guide.

To book a class trip to Seat at the Table at the Kimmel Center for the Performing Arts in Philadelphia, email kcronk@kimmelcenter.org or call 215.790.5819.

Women Take Center Stage in Orchestra's WomenNOW Series

Rising star and Curtis Institute of Music graduate Karina Canellakis (pictured) made her Philadelphia Orchestra debut as conductor on February 7. Two of the program's three pieces were by women composers: Work in Dialogue with Beethoven by Jessica Hunt and Lineage by Zosha Di Castri, which was written as a tribute to her grandmother. The concert was part of the ongoing Philadelphia Orchestra WomenNOW concert series featuring women composers, conductors, instrumentalists, vocalists and thinkers in programs that showcase rarely heard works of the past and inspiring music of today. The Philadelphia Orchestra is a Proud Partner of Women 100.
