

BACHELOR OF ARCHITECTURE

151 Semester Credits*

*Beginning in Academic Year 2027-2028

University Requirements

Introductory Core Competency Courses
Introduction to Experiential Learning
Writing and Communication I, II
Math and Physics
Free Electives

College Requirements

Visual and Information Literacy
Making and Storytelling
Global and Cultural Histories

Program Requirements

Introductory Drawing
Design Foundations
Architecture Studio I, II, III
Architectural Representation I, II, III
Architectural History I, II
Theories of Architecture and Urbanism
Materials and Methods
Building Systems I, II
Structural Systems I, II
Professional Practice
Architectural Programming
Civic Architecture Studio
Architecture and Urbanism Studio
Integrated Architecture Studio
Specialized Architecture Studio
Architecture Thesis I, II

Architecture Electives

Select (2) From Each Area

Architecture and Civic Engagement

- Topics in Architecture and Civic Engagement
- Applied Digital Tools in Architecture
- Impact Design Workshop
- Architecture, Urbanism, and Activism

Building Technology and Sustainability

- Topics in Building Technology and Sustainability
- Architectural Lighting
- Passive House
- Healthy Building Design
- Case Studies in Architectural Design
- Building Enclosure Design

Architectural History and Theory

- Topics in Architectural History and Theory
- Architecture in Philadelphia
- History of American Architecture
- History and Theory of Modern Architecture
- Environmental Psychology and Design Theory
- Introduction to Historic Preservation

Architectural Experience Requirement

A Zero-Credit Course confirming the minimum experience in architecture or a related field required by the program has been met by the student prior to graduation.

Architectural Study Tour

Two-week intensive study tour, paired with an on-campus summer course. Recent tours include Paris, Rome, South Korea, Barcelona and Venice.

